2021 APRIL

GLOBAL VOICES SHABBAT

SPONSORED BY MARY AND LARRY EPSTEIN

davidBROZA

The scent of Spring is in the air. Warmer days, more sunshine, and even hints of flowers peeking their heads up through the ground, so recently covered in snow.

The scent of hope is in the air. More people are getting vaccinated. The prospect of seeing people (masked) face to (masked) face finally seems to be on the horizon.

And here, at Temple Beth El, this vibrant and strong community, who has shown itself to be resilient and connected even in times of isolation, we have a magical Shabbat coming our way.

On Friday, April 9, we are hosting our second Global Voices Shabbat, sponsored by Mary and Larry Epstein. This series, which is meant to open our hearts and minds to different kinds of Jewish music, began in November with guests Nefesh Mountain, a married couple who thrilled us with their soulful Jewish music from a perspective of American Bluegrass and Old-time music. Our second step on our Global Journey takes us from the American South to the Middle East, with Israeli superstar David Broza. Born in Haifa, David's music is Jewish at its very core, and yet he does not compose Jewish liturgical music, meant for services. His music, played everywhere from Masada at sunrise to East Jerusalem to historic Temple Emanuel in New York City, is greatly influenced by David's teenage years spent in Spain and England, and is based on a signature rock and roll sound with virtuosic Spanish flamenco guitar.

Please join us for services that night – Friday, April 9 at 7pm, when David will bring a few of his pieces to our Shabbat service, and stay for the special mini-concert he will perform for our community, bringing a bit of Israel, steeped in Spain and England, to our Michigan shores.
